The drum notation is written on two staves. The first staff contains 16 measures of music. The first measure is a half rest. The following 15 measures feature a complex rhythmic pattern: the right hand plays a series of eighth notes with a brush, and the left hand plays a series of eighth notes with a stick, alternating between the two hands. The second staff contains 4 measures of music. The first measure is a half rest. The second measure features a series of eighth notes with a stick. The third and fourth measures feature a series of eighth notes with a rim click. The piece ends with a double bar line.
