The transcription consists of ten staves of 4/4 time notation. The top staff shows the ride cymbal pattern, which includes a mix of open and closed strokes. The second staff shows the high tom pattern, featuring a continuous sequence of eighth-note pairs. The third staff shows the snare drum pattern, consisting of eighth-note pairs. The fourth staff shows the bass drum pattern, with notes appearing at various intervals. The bottom staff shows the hihat and foot patterns, with the hihat being mostly closed and the foot providing a steady eighth-note pulse. Measure numbers 1 through 33 are indicated on the left side of each staff.
